OUR MISSION

To provide quality, compassionate care for those facing chronic and terminal illness by offering physical, psychological, emotional, spiritual and educational support to individuals, their families and community at the end of life and during bereavement.

OUR VALUES

- Compassion
- Confidentiality
- Dignity
- Volunteerism
- Communication

OUR SERVICES

- Bereavement Bridging (one-on-one)
  - online
  - in person
- 8 Week Bereavement Group (Spring * Fall)
  - in person

FACILITATOR TRAINING

- Bereavement Facilitator Training will be available one to two times a year depending on level of interest.

VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers are the Heart of our Society and we are so pleased to have 140+ volunteers. Our Volunteers are not trained counselors but have taken specialized Bereavement Facilitator training that can assist through the grieving journey by sharing information, instilling hope and reminding you that you are not alone.

“What we have once enjoyed, we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes part of us.”

Helen Keller
